RESOLUTIONS OF DRUGGISTS.

Passed at the Recent Convention Held at Harvey's Lake.

At its annual convention, held at Hotel Onondaga, Harvey's Lake, June 18, 19 and 20, the following resolutions were adopted, which are of interest to the druggists of Scranton and of the entire state:

"Whereas, The Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical association from its inception has taken the deepest interest in securing legislation which aims at giving the public the greatest measure of protection, at the same time guarding those interests of the pharmacists which fall within inalienable rights.

"Whereas, The president of the pharmacy board has presented a statement of this body, detailing the action of the board in the prosecution of those who have been made during the past year. From this it appears that many flagrant offenses have been made to realize that the pharmacy laws which are on the statute books are not inoperative, as has been erroneously supposed by some, but must be lived up to and enforced to the full extent of the law and the powers of the board; but it also appears that in the manner of the enforcement of the sections of the law referring to the renewal and displaying of registration certificates there has been ground for grave criticism. Be it

"Resolved, That the association pledges to the pharmacy board its most cordial support in its efforts to enforce the laws of this commonwealth, but it distinctly condemns the method which has been employed by the board and the judgment exercised in many cases where the minor offenses of not displaying renewal certificates have been visited by prosecution, which it would have been wiser to have withheld.

"Resolved, That this association has due respect to the laws. Nevertheless it recognizes the peril which confronts the best interests of pharmacy when sound judgment is not exercised in the enforcement of the laws, and, whilst it does not seek to dictate to the pharmacy board how its business shall be conducted, this association is acting strictly within its right and liberties in recording in annual session assembled, its views about vital matters affecting the reputation of its members and the best interests of the pharmaceutical profession of the state."

THROWN FROM WAGON.

Peter Pincenoff Badly Injured Yesterday Morning.

Peter Pincenoff, of 424 Hickory street, had his horse thrown from a wagon he was driving. He is employed as a teamster by Contractor Peter Stipp, and the accident occurred while he was driving along the lower portion of his body. He was removed to the Lackawanna hospital.

He had been driving slowly, but suddenly hurried his horse up, and the animal giving a violent start of speed, Pincenoff was thrown from his seat, and the wagon passed over the lower portion of his body. He was removed to the Lackawanna hospital.

RECORD HAS BEEN BROKEN.

Only One Application for Relief at Poor Board Meeting Yesterday.

There was only one applicant for relief at yesterday's meeting of the poor board. This breaks all previous records, the general average number of applicants at each meeting being from twelve to fifteen. There was no business transacted except the passing of a large batch of bills.

RULES FOR THE PARKS.

Director of Public Works Roche is preparing a set of rules and regulations governing the conduct of visitors in and travelers through the parks of the city. The rules are to be embodied in an ordinance which is to be soon presented in council.

They will regulate the speed for driving through the parks and will include rules of the road, especially applicable to those parts of the city. The multiplication of trees and shrubs and the picking of flowers will be forbidden, and a penalty fixed for a violation of any of the rules.

THEY CAN'T BE REARRESTED

BRIBERY CASES MAY BE ABRUPTLY TERMINATED.

If the indictments in the Cases Against Frank Silliman, Jr. and the Five Old Forge Councilmen Are Quashed, Which Is Thought to Be Very Likely, That Will Be the End of the Proceedings—Trolley Company Sued for Motorman Westbrook's Death.

No contention raised in the local courts in many a day has provoked such general discussion as the raised by Major Warren and Mr. O'Brien in the Silliman case Thursday. The proposition that there was nothing in the statutes, up to May 2 last, forbidding the bribing of borough councilmen was startling at first, but when the matter was examined into there was a very general and positive concurrence among the lawyers in the position taken by Mr. Silliman's attorneys.

The act of 1874, under which the indictment was drawn, reads as follows:

AN ACT defining the offense of corrupt solicitation of members of assembly, state, county, and borough, and prescribing the punishment therefor. Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., that any person or persons who shall directly or indirectly, offer or promise of money, office, employment, testimonial, or other thing of value, or who shall by threats or intimidation, endeavor to induce any member of the general assembly, state, county or borough, to perform or non-performance of any act, duty or obligation pertaining to such office, shall be guilty of the offense of corrupt solicitation, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and to undergo imprisonment not exceeding two years, at the discretion of the court.

This act, it is claimed, applies only to state officers, and as a corollary of this claim it is pointed out that the present legislature, realizing the deficiency, passed a law defining and punishing the offense of corrupt solicitation of borough councilmen. The bribing of city councilmen is not covered by the act of 1874, but by the act of 1893 and 1891, relating to the government of cities.

The five Old Forge councilmen, who were indicted for receiving the bribes of Silliman, are alleged to have given, like Silliman, no answer to the indictments against them. The statute of limitations intervening. That the indictments in these cases will be quashed is almost certain. District Attorney Lewis has already given notice that the course of the grand jury was irregular.

Two Suits for $30,000 Damages.

Suit was yesterday begun by Daniel C. Westbrook, of Brooklyn, Susquehanna county, against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company for the death of his son, who was killed in the collision near Nebo church, in Rendell, last summer.

Mr. Westbrook's son was the motorman on the outbound car. His car rounded the curve at that point and was about to swing on to the straight line when an inbound car loomed up in front of him. He had time to jump and save his life, but he stuck to his post heroically, doing all that lay in his power to avert the collision. The other car, deserted by its crew, crashed into his car and ploughed him in the wreckage. He died that night from internal injuries. Eleven passengers were more or less injured, but had it not been for the collision, no one would have been in the car as much as he did, the collision would have been much more forcible, and more than one fatality would doubtless have been recorded.

The accident was caused by boys tampering with the switch signals. The company is alleged to have been guilty of negligence in failing to provide switch signals which could not be so readily tampered with.

Attorney W. D. E. Ahney, of Montrose, and C. A. Van Wormer, of this city, represent the plaintiff.

Through Attorney Ralph L. Levy, Joseph Malutski, of Priceburg, brought suit against the Scranton Railway company for $5,000 damages for personal injuries. The plaintiff alleges that on June 5 last, he boarded a car at the corner of Penn avenue and Mulberry street, to go to his home in Priceburg. Upon reaching the station, the conductor he learned that he was on the wrong car, and he asked that the car should be stopped until he could get off. The conductor insisted on him getting off while the car was in motion, and when he refused the conductor, so he says, pushed him from the platform. He fell violently to the ground and sustained injuries that he claims will disable him permanently.

Examiners Make Their Report.

W. R. Lewis and T. J. Dugan, the examiners in the Langstaff-Kelly election contest, filed their report Thursday. They reported that 12,500 witnesses were examined and that the examination of the ballots showed 25,700 and 257 days in preparing the report. The list of illegal votes is estimated to contain over 2,000 names. This will not be determined until the court has made its review of the findings.

Some More Divorces.

Judge Carpenter, Thursday, granted a divorce to Mrs. M. L. Gerraty, of Dalton, whose husband deserted her in 1898, after they had lived together for eight years.

Divorce proceedings were instituted yesterday by Mary E. Martin against her runaway husband, Henry Martin. They were married in 1891, and the desertion took place four years later. C. R. Gardner is the libellant's attorney. Almon F. Tripp started divorce proceedings against his wife, Viola V. Tripp. Unfaithfulness is alleged. Asa Wolf is named as co-respondent. Mr. Tripp's attorney is Joseph F. Gilroy.

Made a Poor Guess.

A bride of four months applied for a divorce yesterday. She is Mrs. Catherine Watkins, of North Scranton. Cruel and barbarous treatment are the charges she alleges against her husband, Gomer Watkins.

They were married April 4, 1900, and she separated from him August 7. D. L. Fickes is Mrs. Watkins' attorney.

Court House News Notes.

Suit to recover $1,500 on a fire insurance policy was begun yesterday by John L. Hull against the Delaware Insurance company, of Philadelphia. Charles L. Hawley is Mr. Hull's attorney.

S. W. Reynolds, of Bath, has instituted a trespass suit against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company to recover $10,000 damages for personal injuries received while a passenger on one of the company's trains. O'Brien & Martin are the plaintiff's attorneys.

FORMAL TRANSFER MADE

Cliff Street Shops Are Now the Property of the American Locomotive Company.

The formal transfer of the Cliff street locomotive shops of the Dickson Manufacturing company took place Thursday afternoon, and it is expected that within a few days representatives of the American Locomotive company, the mammoth combine which now owns the works, will arrive in the city and take possession.

Thursday the company was represented by proxy, the chief of the division being handled by A. E. Fletcher, vice president of the Dickson Manufacturing company. The purchase money was paid over to the Dickson company, and all deeds, titles of possession, books, etc., were surrendered to the combine. The price for which the works were sold cannot be yet ascertained, as the Dickson people refuse to give out any information on that point. They claim that it has not been made public so far, to even the stockholders, the board of directors alone being cognizant of the exact terms and they having ratified the sale.

It is not likely that under the new regime there will be any radical changes in the active operation of the shops, but of course nothing definite will be known of this, until the arrival of the American company's representatives next week. Superintendent C. A. Delaney will most probably be retained to direct the shops, as he has proven himself in every particular a man well equipped for the position. The new management will have the advantage of the eight hundred men under him and since he became superintendent the quantity and quality of the annual output has given the shops an international reputation for high grade work.

SPRINKLING SYSTEM IN USE.

Court House Lawn Irrigating Plant Proved a Success.

Water was last night turned into part of the system of pipes for sprinkling the court house lawn, and worked admirably. The part of the lawn sprinkled was from the driveway leading to the court house from Linden street, to Adams, to Spruce, and on Spruce as far as the driveway.

This is just one-half of the lawn. The water was kept playing through the pipes for more than an hour, and the result was entirely satisfactory. The system for the remainder of the lawn has not yet been perfected.

A GALA NIGHT FOR FIREMEN

NEW CLUB HOUSE OF RELIEF ASSOCIATION OPENED.

This was preceded by a Parade of Former Volunteer Firemen of the City—The Fittings of the Club House Passed All Expectations. Description of the Rooms and Their Appointments—Public Meeting to Be Soon Held—Officers of the Association.

The former volunteers, who up to a few weeks ago constituted the fire department of this city, opened their new club house, on Spruce street, last night in a blaze of glory. There was a parade of the volunteer companies, witnessed by thousands, and a general exchange of handshakes and good-fellowship at the club house.

The parade, which was probably the last in which the volunteers as a body will participate, started from the Nay Aug Engine house, on Franklin avenue, promptly at 8 o'clock. It was headed by Chief Engineer F. W. Zielmann, who marched in front of the Lawrence band of thirty pieces. Following the band came a delegation of the permanent men of the department, who have supplanted the volunteers. A number of carriages, containing President John Moir and the other officers of the Firemen's Relief association, and some of the older volunteers, came next. Conspicuous among the old firemen was Charles Corless, aged seventy-three years, of the Columbus, who has been a member of that company since 1877, and who is the oldest fireman in the city.

FRANKLINS AT THE HEAD.

The first company in line was the Franklin, of West Scranton, headed by the Sons of Veterans' drum corps. The Columbus, in the center part of the uniforms, followed, headed by the Patriotic Order Sons of America drum corps. Next came small delegations from the Cumberland, Liberty, Excelsior, Niagara, General Phinney, Century, Relief and Eagle companies.

The old hand engine, presented to the association some years ago, was drawn by the Nay Aug Engine company, whose drum corps followed, heading the Crystal boys and the members of the Neptune company. The members of the Hook and Ladder company, each carrying a red light and headed by the Ringgold band, came behind the Neptunes.

Bauer's Thirteenth regiment band headed the William Connell company, which brought up the rear of the procession, followed by the apparatus of the central city companies. The line of march was laid over the principal streets in the central part of the city and ended at the club house on Spruce street, between Franklin and Penn avenues, where the parade was disbanded.

The firemen flocked up stairs to the club rooms, which have been kept closed to all but the officers of the association during the weeks of preparation, and which were thus viewed by the general public for the first time.

The firemen who have been kept closed to all but the officers of the association during the weeks of preparation, and which were thus viewed by the general public for the first time. The firemen who have been kept closed to all but the officers of the association during the weeks of preparation, and which were thus viewed by the general public for the first time.

OCCUPY THREE FLOORS.

The three upper floors of the four story building at 221 Spruce street are occupied by the association. The second floor has been fitted up as a parlor, reception and reading room. The walls and ceiling are decorated in delicate tints with panels in mural designs. The carpet is a deep red and the furniture is upholstered in the same color. There is an elegant upright piano in the room and a number of expensive pieces of furniture from several of the company's houses.

The third floor is fitted up as a pool and billiard room. The prevailing color is green, the walls being tinted that color and the carpet also. There are two tables, one a pool table and the other a billiard with the racks and all the other necessary paraphernalia for the playing of these games.

The fourth floor is fitted up as a meeting room with seats and a raised platform for the club house. A number of the companies, which will retain their individual organization, will hold regular meetings in this room, which is to be fitted up as a gymnasium in the near future. In the rear of this floor are two well appointed shower baths and a lavatory.

Scattered throughout the three floors are a number of relics, which have been treasured by the several companies for years and which have now been donated to the association. There are also scores upon scores of pictures, which form a photographic history of the volunteer fire department of the city, and which are well worth a close study.

SPEECH MAKING ABANDONED.

It was the intention last night to have had several addresses made, but this idea was abandoned on account of the general confusion. Treasurer A. B. Holmes explained that at some future date there would be a meeting held, at which A. J. Colborn, Jr., and others, who were to have spoken last night, would make addresses explaining the future aims and objects of the association.

Director of Public Safety F. L. Wormer and former Recorder James Moir were among the more prominent guests present last night. Among those present from out of town were: H. E. Wolfe and H. E. Mitchell, of the Altoona fire department, and Joseph Lamada, formerly a member of the Cincinnati volunteer fire department.

The officers of the Firemen's Relief association, who have done so much to perfect the plans for the new club house, were present. President John Moir; vice president, Emil Bonn; secretary, W. B. Birtley; treasurer, A. B. Holmes; trustees, Harry Greenwald, Peter Robling, Jr., Peter Yost, D. J. Newman and F. W. Zielmann.

drew last Thursday night providing for the purchase of horses and equipment showed that that branch of the council does not at all approve of the company, and that the members were only induced to provide for a permanent man few months ago because they realized that if they did not do so the whole reorganization ordinance would be hung up by the common council.

Director Wormer believes that a hose company is necessary in the Keyser Valley, and it was at his suggestion that Mr. McAndrews introduced the ill-fated ordinance above referred to. The ordinance provided for the appropriation of $345,300 of which was for the purchase of horses, and $250 for the purchase of an indicator. The company already has a hose wagon and a supply of hose.

The city may get mixed up in a lawsuit because of the failure of councils to pass the resolution providing for a ratification of the action of Director Wormer in awarding the contract for 200 feet of fire hose to the Gutter Percha and Rubber Manufacturing company. The company decided to send on the hose before the contract was signed, and it has been received and accepted by the city. In case councils should decide to re-advertise for bids for the hose the company can, of course, be expected to go into court to recover the amount of the contract.

President D. J. Newman and several of the other officers of the Crystal Engine company last night tendered the members of the company an informal banquet at Aylesworth hotel, on Penn avenue. There were thirty who sat down to the spread prepared and dry and liquid refreshments were partaken of for an hour or more. Then there was a brief session of speech-making, which had for its special feature a happy address by former Recorder Moir, himself a member of the company.

Among the interesting relics which occupy a place of honor in the new club house of the Firemen's Relief association is a bell which was used in Philadelphia to call out the firemen as far back as 1770, or during the Revolutionary war. There is also a trumpet which was used by an assistant chief of the Philadelphia fire department in 1806. Some of the old square cornered hats, which were used by the volunteer firemen of Philadelphia during the first years of the last century are also on exhibition. One of these was worn in the parade last night by President John Moir.
